Foreword

- Our last memorable year at W. C. H. S. has passed. The WECOMI is our diary of the memories we want to keep, the little incidents and little intimacies that will linger with us through the years. It is a book to take off the shelf when our high school years are just faint remembrances.

The Senior Class dedicates the '44 WECOMI to all those persons who have made our high school years what they were, the teachers with their classroom antics and helpful advice, the obliging janitors, our classmates, some of whom will be our lifelong friends, and our parents, not only our own parents, but those of our friends, like Mr. Hugh Coats, our number one fan. These and innumerable others are part of our memories forever.

The WECOMI staff wishes to acknowledge with full appreciation the help given to us by Mr. Orlin Kohli, the DAILY JOURNAL, and Mr. D. C. Burger, all of whom gladly came to our aid in times of need.

The Senior Class

- You will smile over not only the big important events that everyone remembers, but also the little everyday things that bring you together, not only your class as a whole, but also the peculiarities that characterize each individual. Such things as:

Edgar Carpenter nodding peacefully, wherever he is. Teddy Dan's diminutive sneeze. Pat McCreary lying on the floor during basketball games. Larry Feinman's Gil strut. Bartie Anson and Betty Lou Armstrong playing tag in the hallway. John the typewriter. Kirk Watts. Leon Krueger's duck waddle. Ted Boyd and Fraser Whitehead. How fast Wayne Russell. Clark Gable cars the serve flag for Bob Foster in second round. Wally Strickland and Bob Foster trying to get a tie in the stitching contest. Bob Eckhardt's chewing gum parades around his car. Fuzzy Rohrer's numerous birthdays. Mary James' bass voice. Bette Doo's milk diet. Elsie Abbott's knitting. Chuck Varn's pin. The Trandum's car. Lisa Cook making faces at the typewriter. Roy Zard's twirling. Janne Keekers' dream of a future in a griddle with two cocker spaniels. Chris Gendens' raised eyebrow. Don Granger's sentimental songs. Bibbie Fisk's family remark in front of class. The only apprentice know of, an apprentice seaman.

ELINOR ABBOTT . . . "Elin" is a knitting fiend. G.R. 1-2-3-4; Cabinet 4; Handicraft Club 2; Latin Club 1; Spanish Club 3; G.A.A. 1-2; Poetry Club 4.

- Remember riding home in Joe Reinhardt's "Ulysses," wearing Tom Calinan's tie tickets to advertise school events, Doc Hopf's patched glasses, Frederick Bremer's interpretation of married life, Ted Graham's overworked cow, Bob Monroe's enthusiasm for sitting for his picture, Jack Steadman's 14 feet, Jim Ford and Dick Impey's system of passing Latin by crossing their fingers and praying, John Shurtleff's magician show, Jim Conrad's forgetfulness on track trips, the chess board Brooks Wiider got for Christmas, Sam Sublett pinch-hitting for Coach Hodges in chalk talks?

Who's ground black?

- The Freshman-Sophomore Race for attendance hops, class dances stage front in speech classes, eating from the chem. lab., sore muscles from physical education, Brown and Emily Dickinson gnawing pangs of hunger beginning about ten o'clock, the information desk in the hall, the bookstore window, the daily announcements, the Junior Play, the interclass war band drive, bug-hunting for biology, the Junior Prom, Tuesday papers, the distant hum of the buzz saw, the fascinating things in the art room, white slips, blue slips, pink slips, yellow passes, weekly debates on Monday as to whether G.R. or H.Y. meets, the back seat in geometry, pancake day on January 17, the rush to lunch, the argument over who's going to carry the tray back—little things like these will mean something to you always.

THE COACHES

- "Bud" Colin's easy smile; his quiet, calm manner; his jokes shared with the boys; his one-year-old son, Butch, helping the cheerleaders at pep meetings; his habit of tearing candy wrappers in tense moments?

Mr. Lowry walking, hands in pockets, down the hall; keeping the boys alert on the practice field and at games; his ever-present pad of paper and the hurried conferences with Mr. Colin; his sleepy, boyish smile?

Max Has His Say.

- Remember the first home game of the season which we lost to York and the next one at Sycamore which we won? You remember too the Geneva game when Keyes cut loose and Krewson ran over everybody in his way making his interference. Then in spite of Denny's touchdown in three plays we lost to St. Charles by 6 points when their captain outplayed us. In the Batavia game Denny ran back the opening kick off to start a score which mounted to 15 points. Wheaton won from Dundee without memorable incidents, but in the Marion game Dick Hoyle starred as he successfully blocked Durant who was running for a touchdown. Though big Don Patterson threw the little West Chicago boys around in all directions they knocked our championship hopes by outplaying us on a muddy field and winning by 5 points. With Magge's line playing and Bassett's and McQueeney's touchdown runs however we finished the season with a 12 to 7 victory.

You remember other things like freezing temperatures on late fall nights the three deep line along the wire Dr. Jones climbing the fence to answer a call for help during the Marion game the dance for the Marion boys after the game the announcement "No more hot dogs" from the refreshment booth just when you were about to collapse from hunger.

Karner in the Clear.

- If your mother insisted on your having dinner with the family, you may have missed most of the games played by the Tiger Cubs, but you probably arrived in time to hear a voice broadcasting a victory over Sycamore, Batavia, West Chicago, and Glenbard; a defeat by York, Geneva, St. Charles, and Naperville; or a tie with Dundee. Except for the final score, about all you knew of the games was a remark you overheard about Sublett's tackle or Karner's run.

First row: Beutjer, Brunick, Duncan, Mr. Colin, Brown, Storck, Dustin (manager).

- Will you ever forget Krewson's skill in rebound and defensive play, especially in the Dundee game; Vear on the beam most of the time but especially in the West Chicago game; Denny's last game, at Glenbard, when he confounded the entire opposing team with those tricky, behind-the-back passes; Brunick's uncanny shooting ability and that one-hand push that he perfected; Storck's regular job of guarding the opponents high scoring man; and McQueeny's habit (whenever he wasn't stretched out on the floor) of casually making those seemingly impossible shots?

Remember the game at Batavia, when most of the team went out on fouls; those close contests with St. Charles, Sycamore, and Batavia, which we won or lost by one point; Joe Reinhardt, stuck with the cheerleaders after the Sycamore game; the little towel cart that went scooting across the floor at the breath of a whistle; Manager Warny out with his broom for his between games housekeeping; Ted, forgetting that his mike was on, mumbling his disgust when the opposing team scored?

Track

7. The undersigned hereby certifies that the above information is true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he is not aware of any other information that would materially affect the accuracy of the foregoing.

- Track seemed at times to be in season the year round. Even in February, when it was very dry, Anson, Jirtle, Costin, and Lacey, made a country run and attracted a large crowd. In March and May, Barton, Ely, and Tom Callinan were good all year round and round the place excepting in June. Remember the number of the lower half were a few other performers, and tied the stakes in October, weathered through the heat of the robins game Mr. H. Jones with Callinan, Anson, and Zarbock out for the mile and the half, Vear for the half, Tomkins, and Edwards for the quarter. Callinan and Seagraves for the half, and Lacey and Barton for the sixth and the discuss.

Later on the morning after the Winston Relays with the rest of the team of the queen and her attendants to present the trophy to the winning teams. In 1943 Winston ranked fourth in Class B of these relays, third in the Little Six and made a good show in the Orange County.

Tennis

- Remember the tennis team, so young and so enthusiastic? In its second year, coached by Mr. Lowry, it scheduled — and lost — matches with full-grown teams like Oak Park's and Hinsdale's, but won from Joliet and Marmion. Shillinglaw reached the semi-finals in the district tournament.

Baseball and Intramurals

- Mr. Colin's 1943 baseball team won 5 games, lost 8, and had its money's worth of fun. You fellows who played will remember a small out-of-town diamond with the right field under an oak tree, center in a sewer trench, and left out of sight in the valley below a Buick with the horn of a streamliner, sounding in Denny's ear just as he was winding up to pitch; and the fly Kroning caught in the lagoon at the North Side Park. Then there were the Intramural basketball teams, drawn by lot and scheduled to play each other in two rounds of games from Christmas vacation through February. Mr. Garner supervised the games.

A black and white photograph of a large group of people, likely a choir or a large family, posed in several rows. The individuals are dressed in formal attire, and the setting appears to be indoors with a plain background.

- Cramming chairs, stands, instruments, and people into the little music room for practice playing for plays, the Christmas program meetings of various sorts in town, the spring concert. Commencement: the secret key in the music room door which only orchestra members could use; "Pavanne" and "Holiday for Strings"; Miss Dirks' pride and joy, her boy violinists?

● String Sextet: Dobos, Fenyő, Fényes, Márton, ...

- Meeting wherever there was a piano whenever all six could get together; Dick Impay and Mr. Tibbetts carrying the bass fiddle all over the Loop; getting out of classes to play for town programs?

Class of '44 In Service

- In 1944 boys were choos
ed with colleges but branches of the military service for the next year.
Some of the boys were in uniform even before their senior year started; others left during the year. At the end of the first semes ter eight boys of the Class of 1944 were in military service. In addi tion to those whose photo graphs are on this page
we had Dick Burghardt and John and John Kemper in the army.

- The service flag on the north wall of the auditorium was one of our prized possessions. At the beginning of 1944 there were 606 stars on it, the five gold ones placed for Philip Hadley Fox, Thomas E. Morris, Herbert G. Nickerson, Gene Breckman, and Raymond Moershall.

Many a time the flag looked down on alumni in uniform returning to tell us of their experiences in the service, to express their appreciation of their school, and to advise us to work harder while we were still there. Some of them spoke in assembly. Lieutenant Tom Bai of the Navy described dog fights between Jap Zeros and American planes. Lieutenant Wilbur Hattendorf of the Army Air Corps told us of a flight from Iceland to North Africa and of the Mediterranean raid in which his brother, Lieutenant Richard Hattendorf, was seriously wounded. Major Robert Nicholson, in charge of communications on Admiral Turner's staff, gave an account of the Marines in action.
